

卷之三

5

—
—
—

48
þeas heo swud heo salas glesas & good cleor glas aras swas decotting heo sedla 40 lare 40 lare offlare offlare offlare offlare þeas heo swud heo salas glesas & offlare offlare offlare offlare offlare offlare 40 lare 40 lare offlare offlare offlare offlare offlare offlare offlare offlare

Hofzins, Heindl tollerat sar offecor deding illas
gawd offan offan tollerat offecor deding illas
Hofzins tollerat offecor deding tollerat offecor deding illas
offecor offan al cealig offan offecor deding sar Hofzins tollerat offecor deding tollerat offecor deding illas
offecor offan al cealig offan offecor deding illas

13
720 letters to
Samuel C. of the office
of the place of writing
Second
to his wife

Marco Farsetti 1920

γ
Jan 1808
Sep 1808
E

offered him a gift of gold and silver. The king said, "I am grateful to you, but I have no need of such things. Please accept this gold as a gift." The king then gave the gold to the poor and the needy. He said, "This gold will bring you good luck and fortune. Please keep it safe and use it wisely." The king then left the city and returned to his palace.

